Modernize Your Payout Approach

We're living in an on-demand gig economy where service is expected to be quick and frictionless – and where payouts need to follow suit. Implement fast, secure, and self-directed payouts for your independent salesforce, contract workers, or freelance providers. With Hyperwallet's payout API, you can send same-day payments, or decide on a cadence that works best for your user base.

Easy, Global Payout Optionality

With PayPal payouts, you can mitigate the impacts of foreign exchange fees for your out-of-country experts by offering local currency payouts to bank accounts. Looking to expand your recruitment pool? Increase worker attraction and retention rates by offering unbanked and underbanked workers flexible payout methods, including PayPal, prepaid cards, and cash pickup.

Integrate Fast, and Own the Payout Experience

Hyperwallet's payout API integrates full stack payout capabilities directly into your existing website or application. If developer resources are tight, opt for our prebuilt drop-in transfer method UI or stand-alone Pay Portal for easy implementation. Hyperwallet's technology lets you decide how to segment, brand, configure, report on, and fund your payout programs, putting you in control of your operational workflow and your worker's payment experience.
